INVESTMENT COMMENTARY

Global equities rose in April but showed some intermittent volatility as persistent inflation and bank turmoil rattled investors. Central banks have remained hawkish, but the bond market is beginning to show signs of interest rates approaching peak levels.

SKAGEN Global outperformed its benchmark index in April. The fund ended the month ahead of its benchmark year-to-date as well as measured over 1-year, 5-year and since-inception time periods.

The fund's top absolute performer was the undervalued insurance broker Brown & Brown which reported a strong set of results. Our free cash flow projections for the company make it a compelling investment case.

The worst performer in absolute terms was the index-provider MSCI. The stock retreated after reporting decelerating subscription rates in its Analytics, Private Assets and ESG & Climate segments. We are not surprised by this slowdown given the current economic environment. Moreover, we consider other business areas much more material to MSCI's long-term investment case.

Commentary on portfolio trading activity, if any, will follow at quarter end. Overall, the Q1 reporting season is off to a good start for SKAGEN Global. We remain optimistic about the fund's positioning and the upside in the portfolio continues to look highly attractive for investors with a multi-year investment horizon.

FUND PERFORMANCE¹

	Last month	YTD 2023	1-Year	Since Start
SKAGEN Global LUX B EUR	1.1%	6.1%	0.5%	8.4%
MSCI AC World Index	-0.2%	5.2%	-2.5%	8.3%

Historical returns are no guarantee for future returns. Future returns will depend, inter alia, on market developments, the fund manager's skill, the fund's risk profile and management fees. The return may become negative as a result of negative price developments. There is a risk associated with investing in the fund due to market movements, currency developments, interest rate levels, economic, sector and company-specific conditions.

RISK PROFILE

We have classified this product as 5 out of 7, which is a medium-high risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium-high level. Other risks not included in the summary risk indicator but materially relevant: Event risk, liquidity risk, operational risk, counterparty risk, derivatives risk. Be aware of currency risk. You will receive payments in a different currency, so the final return you will get depends on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above. This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.
